

Primary Health Care Nurse
Newtown Union Health Service

Fixed Term (0.6 FTE) 6-months starting August 2025

Newtown Union Health Service is a not-for-profit community health service providing affordable and accessible health care for those on low incomes in the Southern and Eastern suburbs of Wellington.

We are looking for a Registered Nurse who has a passion for primary care and an interest in expanding/continuing their nursing knowledge and experience within the Primary Health Care sector.

This is a fixed term position from the beginning of August 2025 to the end of January 2026, a period of six months. You will be joining a team of vibrant, passionate people who work collectively to improve health outcomes for the people for whom we provide care at the NUHS Broadway clinic.

You will need the following:

- A current NZNC practicing certificate
- A natural passion to build relationship with patients from diverse communities
- A drive to want to help people
- Intellectual curiosity
- A can-do attitude
- Provide solutions to the challenges and change of primary health care
- Experience preferred - orientation to the service and the role will be provided

You will be well supported by a passionate team of professionals, professional supervision and training and development opportunities. Only applicants with NZ Citizenship, Residency, or a valid work permit to work in New Zealand will be considered for this role.
