

NEWTOWN UNION HEALTH SERVICE

Service Disruption

Between April and May Newtown Union Health will be changing practice management systems.

This means there will be some disruptions to appointment times and availability

We appreciate your ongoing support and patience while the programme is being installed and staff are learning how to use the new system.

